T At a Large and Enthusiastic Convention Or At a Large and Enthusiastic Convention of over Six Hundred Delegates from the free and independent voters of the City of New-York, convened for the purpose of examining the qualifications of the various Candidates to be voted for at the coming Election, feeling assured that in the manner the Primary Elections of our city are conducted, and the monstrous abuses imposed upon the more orderly, peaceful and intelligent portion of the community, and more particularly having noticed, with extreme surprise and regret, the attempt mode by both the old parties to impose upon the citizens and taxpayers of the city two persons or the office of Governer of the Alms House, who are so notifically unfitted to discharge the dutice as the nominees of the Whig and Democratic parties, unanimously nominated for that office Hon. ISAAC B. SMITH, late Assistant Alderman of the Ninth Ward; and in presenting the more of Alderman Smith, feel that a discerning and outraged public will sustain the above nomination by electing him to the above office.

plaire.

Mr. B. J. Chambers then made a report from the Assembly Neminating Convention, stating that Col. Thos. P. Whitney had been selected as the Whig Candidate of the First Assembly District. This report was on motion received, and the nomination manimously ratified; after which, Col. Whitney was called out in a speech of considerable length, gave his regions for supporting Whig policy and candidates, pledged his warmest support to the Canal Ecnlargement it it should be his fortune to be elected to represent this District in the Legislature.

it should be his fortume to be elected to represent this District in the Legislature.

A letter was read from Benedict De Angelis, declining the Independent nomination as a candidate for Assembly in favor of Col. Thos. R. Whitney.

Mr. F. A. Paddock, of the XVIIIth Ward, was called upon, and made a powerful speech in favor of Winheld Scott and the policy of the great National Whig party. He was feequently interrupted with loud appliance. Mr. P. also spoke warmly of Washington Hunt and William Kent. The Cuy District and Charter nominations were separately alluded to, which brought down the appliance of the meeting.

Mr. West was called for, and in a brief speech urged upon the Whigs of the Ward the necessity of union and scition in favor of all the nominations of the party. He particularly alluded to James Kelly, our candidate for Sheriff, and Amor J. Williamson, our candidate for Assatant Alderman; his allusions to these names were warmly applauded.

Donald C. Henderson them assured his Whig friends that he heartily supported the whole Whig ticket.

The proceedings of the meeting were enlivened by music from Shelton's Bress Band. The utmost harmony and enthusiasm prevalled. The Whigs of the 11d Ward now present a united front that angers victory at the polls on the 2d of November next. With such a ticket there is good reason to ask Whigs to come forward and support regular nominations. Every friend of City Reform in the Ward should give our Charter ticket his hearty support, and every frierd of the Canal Enlargement should vote for Thos. R. Whitney.

The meeting them adjourned after ordering the proceedings to be published in all the Whig papers.
